SinoMab Awarded the "Best Small and Mid-Cap Company" and "Best CEO" in the Selection of the "6th Hong Kong Golden Stocks Awards" and the "Listed Company with the Most Growth Potential" in the Selection of "2021 Sina Finance Golden Unicorn Best Hong Kong and US Listed Companies"

[11 January 2022, Hong Kong] SinoMab BioScience Limited ("SinoMab" or the "Company", together with its subsidiaries, the "Group", stock code: 3681.HK), a Hong Kong-based biopharmaceutical company dedicated to the research, development, manufacturing and commercialization of therapeutics for the treatment of immunological diseases, was awarded the "Best Small and Medium-Cap Company" at the "6th Hong Kong Golden Stocks Awards Ceremony" held in Shenzhen today, and Dr. Shui On LEUNG, Executive Director, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, was awarded the "Best CEO". The Company was also previously awarded the "Listed Company with Most Growth Potential" in the selection of "2021 Sina Finance Golden Unicorn Best Hong Kong and US Listed Companies".

SinoMab completed enrollment in the phase III clinical trial of its flagship product, SM03, in November last year and expects to commercialize SM03 soon after the clinical data readout this year. In addition, SN1011, a key product of the Company, completed its phase I last subject last visit in China in July last year. The Company is currently initiating a phase II clinical study in China for pemphigus vulgaris (PV), and also plans to initiate a phase II clinical study for systemic lupus erythematosus (SLE) in the near future. SM17, the Company's another key product, is also expected to enter clinical stage this year.

For business development, in September last year, the Company entered into its first license agreement to grant rights for developing and commercializing the Company's key product, SN1011, in the field of renal disease on a global basis. This license provided the Company with an initial upfront payment of US$12 million and the development and sales milestone payments of up to US$183 million. To enhance its R&D and product development capabilities, the Company is constructing a new plant with a capacity of more than 32,000 liters in the Suzhou Industrial Park, and has held a topping-out ceremony for the new base earlier.

Dr. Shui On LEUNG, Chairman, Executive Director and Chief Executive Officer of SinoMab said that: "The Company is honored to be awarded the "Best Small and Mid-Cap Company" and "Best CEO" in the selection of the "6th Hong Kong Golden Stocks Awards" and the "Listed Companies with the Most Growth Potential" in the selection of "2021 Sina Finance Golden Unicorn Best Hong Kong and US Listed Companies", respectively. That reflects the capital market's recognition of the value, management and growth potential of the Company and is a great encouragement to the Company. In the future, the Company will, in line with its original purposes, endeavor to discover and develop innovative drug targets, explore therapies for immune diseases, further expand its product pipeline and strive to bring benefits to patients; strengthen its position in the capital market, enhance its overall competitiveness and create returns for shareholders and investors. With the imminent completion of the phase III clinical trial of its flagship product SM03, the Company is poised for a new leap of increase in value."
